

Noodle-Eating-Poodle-Noodles

Squiggly, wiggly pasta in weird shapes is the choice of oodles of noodle-eating poodles, preferably wuddled with puddles of butter and cheese before being paddled onto plates.

Ingredients

2 quarts water
1 teaspoon salt
10 ounces fusilli pasta
2 tablespoons butter or extra-virgin olive oil
½ cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese

Directions

1. In a pasta pot or other large pot, bring the water to a boil. Add ½ teaspoon of the salt, then the pasta. Cook until tender, about 12 to 13 minutes. Drain.
2. Put the pasta in a bowl and add the butter or olive oil and the remaining ½ teaspoon salt
3. Using large spoons or forks, turn the pasta over and over until it is coated with the butter or olive oil.
4. Add about a third of the cheese, then turn the pasta again. Sprinkle with the remaining cheese and serve.

Makes 4 servings
